

WE WELCOME OUR MASTER OF CEREMONIES Linda Yu,

Co-Anchor & Reporter, ABC 7 Chicago

Linda Yu is the co-anchor of ABC 7 News on weekdays at 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. She joined ABC 7 in 1984.

Previously, Yu served at Chicago's WMAQ-TV, where she was the co-anchor for their 4:30 and 10 p.m. newscasts (1980-84). She joined the station in 1979 as a general assignment reporter and weekend co-anchor. While at WMAQ-TV, Yu also contributed special news reports and hosted documentaries, two of which focused on China, her homeland.

Before arriving in Chicago, Yu worked as a general assignment reporter and fill-in anchor at KGO-TV, the ABC-owned station in San Francisco, CA (1975-79).

During her time at KGO-TV, her report on uninsured motorists prompted the introduction of state legislation to protect residents from these drivers. Prior to this, Yu was a reporter at KATU-TV in Portland, OR (1995).

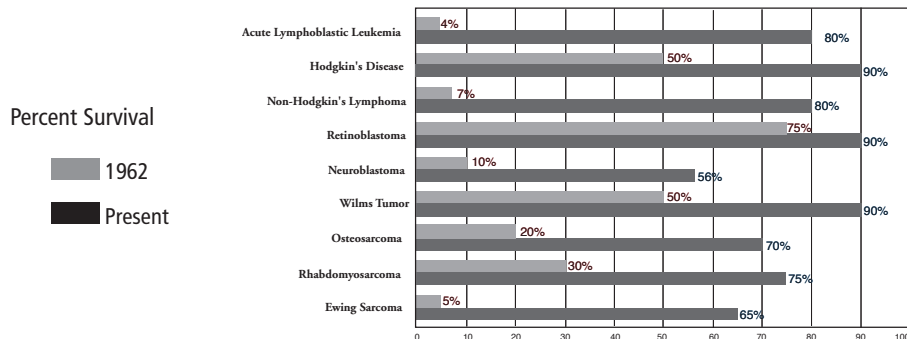

Yu began her broadcasting career in 1974 as a writer and producer for KTLA-TV in Los Angeles, CA, and as a writer for KABC-TV, the ABC-owned station in Los Angeles, CA.

Since coming to Chicago, Yu has earned three local Emmy Awards. In 1987, she received the Emmy for Outstanding Achievement Within a Regularly Scheduled News Program, Spot Coverage. In 1982, she won for her coverage of a construction accident in Chicago's Loop, and in 1981, she received the Emmy for a special newscast on the assassination attempt on President Reagan. Yu also was honored with a National Gold Medal from the National Conference of Christians and Jews for her documentary "The Scars of Belfast" in 1984.

Yu serves on the board of the Juvenile Protective Association, chairs the annual March of Dimes Mother's March, and is the Advisory Board Chairperson for the Chinese American Service League. She is also a co-founder of the Chicago Chapter of the Asian-American Journalists Association.

Born in Xian, China, Yu moved with her family to Hong Kong when she was two years old. They immigrated to the United States three years later, first to Pennsylvania, then to Indiana, and finally to California.

Yu graduated from the University of Southern California with a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism in 1968. She resides in Chicago with her children.

Finding cures. Saving children.

A Fashion Extravaganza to benefit
St. Jude Children's Research Hospital

Dear Friends of St. Jude.

In today's world, we have many choices – sometimes, we feel, more than we can handle. Then we are humbled when we learn of the choices faced by the parents of the children of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Their choices involve medicines with frightening side effects – experimental drugs which may not save their child, but will save future generations.

These parents wish their toughest choice was the one you have made to join us today. Instead, they have chosen a hospital in Memphis, Tennessee, in which they entrust their children to people who fight for life.

Tonight, remember those who can neither be comforted nor healed...yet. It is through the generous donations of compassionate people, such as yourself, that great strides have been made at St. Jude. Today's fashion show is one of the thousands of ways in which generous people across the nation unite in a common bond of love and community to realize Danny Thomas' dream.

On behalf of the committee, we thank you for choosing this particular event on this Sunday afternoon to help us move closer to our insistence that the world MUST be cured of childhood catastrophic diseases. And, in the names of those who, through no choice of their own, cannot be here to express their appreciation, we thank you for making a difference in the lives of others.
